

Barranco La Mina -Las Mesas      3

It starts at the End of walk 1, going it upwards (blue signs). At the end of the abridgement, turn right-hand. (red signs) follow the road to the restaurant "Las rosas". Going the main road 500m upwards to the Portillo, a quarter of Lagunetas. Following the red signed streets to the bottom of the valley, cross the bridge and go left-hand beside the brook an unpaved street upwards. At it end, turn left-hand. Following the brook upwards, you will reach an water mill in ruins. The path goes beside retaining walls upwards to the main road. Go it right-hand, crossing the bridge you will see the wooden sign "Barranco de la Mina". The path follows the valley to the "source"(It isn't an source, it is the end of an aqueduct which had passed un tunnel dated 1594). Now it goes at the dry bottom of the valley upwards until reaching some abandoned houses. Here starts right-hand a unpaved road upwards to the main road, reaching it at "Degollada Becerra" (view). Go the main road 400m left-hand zou will reach walk 1, following (blue signs) left-hand. (If you go at "Degollada Becerra" right-hand, you reach the bus stop in 30 min)